While Dubai is often known for its glitz and glamour there is a lot more to the United Arab Emirates. While it is true that the shopping in Dubai is second to none, and dropping in to the Mall of Emirates is a must with a visit to the Ski park or Magic Planet entertainment centre high on the list, I find that leaving the lights behind and heading in to the desert for a Bedouin feast and night camping under the stars is a great way to recharge and relax. The food alone is a must try, but learning more about the culture behind the region is fascinating.

Of course, just a short drive away is Abu Dhabi, which is home to the amazing Formula One track, and Ferrari World with one of the fastest rollercoasters in the world! And while in the region there is nothing like taking a walk through the ancient outdoor Souq Waqif in Doha, in the state of Qatar.

When planning your next holiday The UAE is definitely a destination to add to the list. I'd love to talk to you about all it has to offer.

Best Locations

There is no one destination to stay in when visiting Dubai. Each offers its own landmarks and reasons for staying. Ultimately it comes down to your preference and what you would like to experience in Dubai.

Deira:

Located north of the creek, Deira is cradle of Dubai's trading roots. A fusion of where the old meets the new, it is an area bustling with activity where visitors can immerse themselves in the atmospheric souk life. The must dos are the Gold Souk and Spice Markets, and take an abra to cross the Creek. Deira is conveniently located ten minutes from Dubai International Airport.

Bur Dubai:

Located on the Western bank of the Creek, 15-20 minutes away from Dubai Airport, it is the home of the historic quarter of Bastakiya. Several renovated historic buildings, the Dubai Museum and the Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding are located here. This district is full of shopping streets and souks, including the textile souk.

Jumeirah Beach:

Approximately 30 minutes away from Dubai Airport, Jumeirah is spread out on the beachfront and is considered to be one of the most exclusive areas within Dubai. Home to the iconic sail shaped Burj Al Arab, the majority of the existing hotels in this area are five-star. These luxurious properties feature pools, swim up bars, spas, a wide range of leisure facilities.

Al Barsha:

One of the newest areas developed, located in west Dubai and approximately 30 minutes from the airport, Al Barsha is conveniently located close to the infamous Mall of the Emirates, which is best known due to Ski Dubai. This area is easily accessible by metro, on the red line and caters for visitors with a wide range of different accommodation budgets, ranging from 2 to 5 stars.

Downtown:

Located 20 minutes away from Dubai Airport, the Downtown area is home to some of the city's most important landmarks including Burj Khalifa – the world's tallest building, Dubai Mall – the world's largest shopping mall and the Dubai Fountains. A very cosmopolitan and vibrant area, it comes to life at nights.

Transport

Taxis:

Allowing you to get from door to door, taxis in Dubai are extremely inexpensive and one of the best ways to get around. They are metered and the payment is only accepted in cash and only in the local currency dirhams. Ladies also have the option of pink taxis which are also available and driven by female drivers. Modern Water Taxis are also available and the tariffs are pre-determined from point to point, prior to embarkation.

Metro:

Dubai metro currently has 2 Metro lines: the Red line and the Green Line, connecting old with new Dubai. It is the world's longest fully automated metro network spanning at 75 kilometres. To travel on the Metro, a Noll card or a Noll ticket must be purchased. Cards can be recharged at vending machines (tickets can be purchased at station)

Bus:

There are 2500 air conditioned buses and the bus stops are all air-conditioned. The average fare is approximately AED 2 (dirhams)

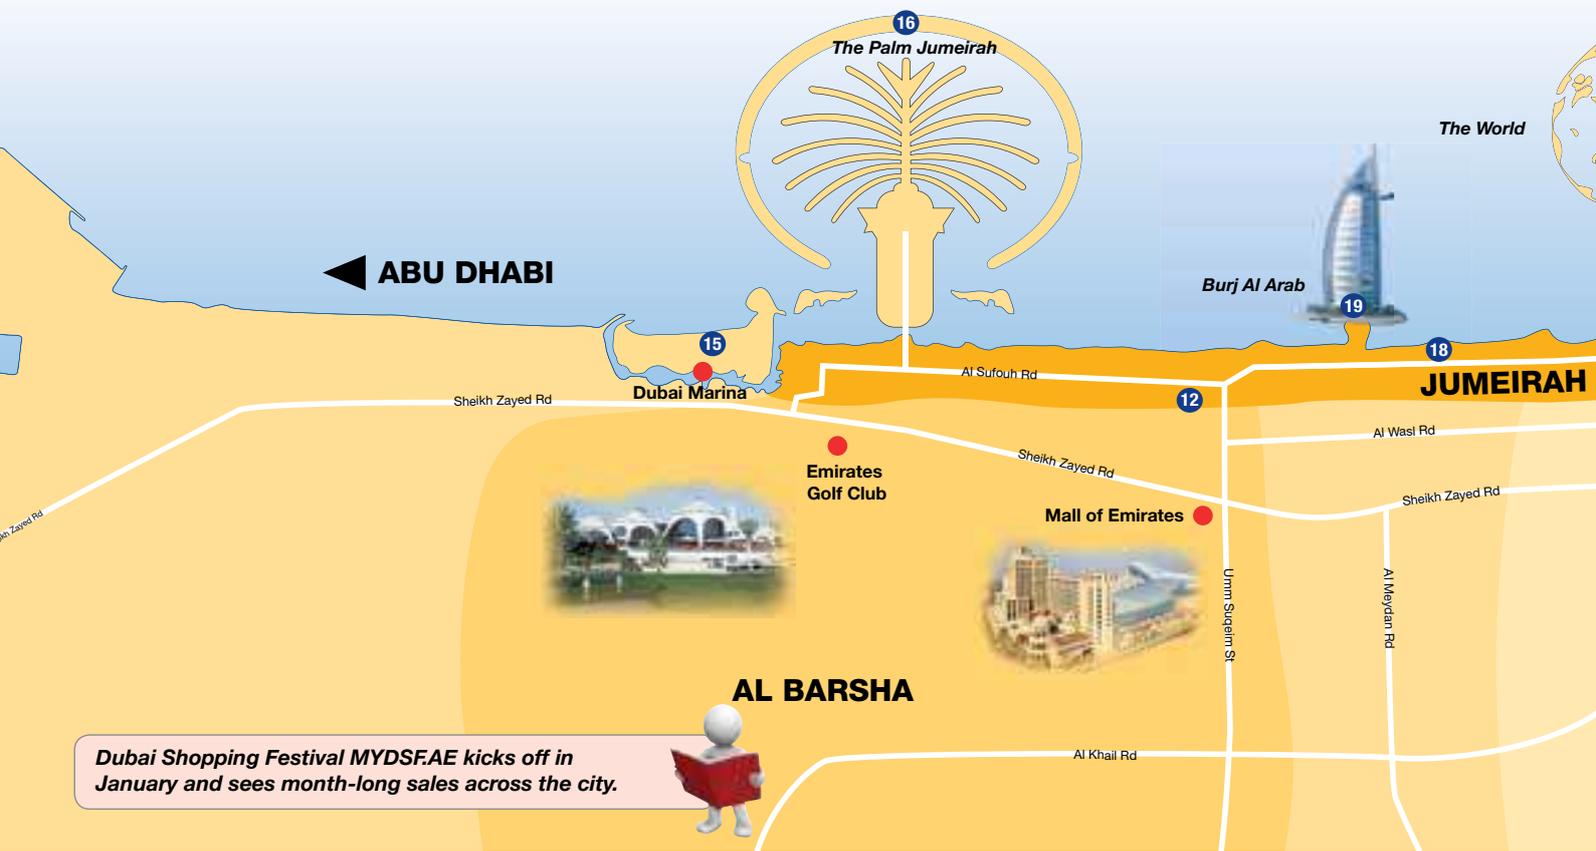

Abra:

Abras are the wooden boats which allow visitors to cross from the eastern to the western banks of Dubai Creek, and vice versa. Abra stations service 18 locations and the cost per trip is AED 1 per person per trip (AUD 0.30 cents). The crossing takes approximately 10 minutes.

Dubai

Dubai Shopping Festival MYDSFAE kicks off in January and sees month-long sales across the city.

Short Stop in Dubai

Dubai & Abu Dhabi are great stopover destinations for passengers who are travelling to Europe and enduring a long flight. Enjoy a break and stop for a night either on the way to or from Europe. Below are some examples of hotels. For example when using 6am Emirates flight from Sydney, the flight arrives to Dubai at 1:30 or 2:30 in the afternoon depending on the season. Most flights to Europe depart Dubai in the morning so this option gives you afternoon and night in Dubai to relax before ongoing flight. It is also great way to adjust to time change.
