Welcome to Israel

Sitting between the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan River, Israel has something for everyone. Whether you are interested in visiting Jerusalem, one of the oldest cities in the world, or experiencing the lowest point on earth – the Dead Sea, Israel is truly a remarkable country.

Israel is home to the Sea of Galilee, the ancient port of Jaffa with its sprawling markets, cobbled docks and crumbling city walls. You can also visit the Mount of Olives, and the holy city of Jerusalem with its stunning skyline. The modern city of Tel Aviv has excellent restaurants, nightlife and shopping. In the north, a cruise on Lake Galilee is also a must.

With mountains, fertile valleys, desert and a significant coastline, in Israel you can experience history, culture, nature and wildlife.

Let us show you Israel - a land of discovery waiting to be explored – a nation quite unlike anywhere else.

*Halina Kubica
Owner & Managing Director*

Choose Your Travel Style

We have Israel completely covered with a travel style to suit everyone. All of our programs include special deals with selected hotels, transfers and tours providers, which makes our Israel getaways perfect for travellers interested in a value for money and wonderful experience.

Short Tours

If you are not keen on changing hotels every night and prefer to base yourself in one place, then our short tours minimise the travel with a variety of day tours. You'll be picked up from your hotel and taken on regular day tours (some day tours are bilingual) each day before being returned to your hotel every night. These bus tours can include up to 54 people (with an average are 20-50 people) depending on season. VIP option is available with maximum 20 people (supplement applies). See from page 7

Weekly Coach Tours

If you don't want to sacrifice your valuable holiday time to back track to Jerusalem every night, then embark on one of our weekly coach tours that visits all the must see sights staying overnight in the areas you'll be visiting. Some programs also combine day tours with extended coach touring and focus on the religious and biblical sites of Israel. See from page 9

Tours Combining Israel with Egypt or Jordan

Great for those looking to combine Israel with its neighbouring countries of Jordan and Egypt. Perfect for those who want to take advantage of the ease of travelling small distances between countries. See from page 19

Religious Tours

Home to the three great Monotheistic religions; Christianity, Judaism and Islam as well as many others. Israel provides an excellent home base for those wanting to embark on a religious pilgrimage. Many sites important to religions are featured within our programs; however, we can custom design any itinerary to suit your specific needs and faith. Visit sites of religious significance such as the Church of Holy Sepulchre for Christians, Masada or the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem. See from page 20

Touring Information

For all tours we are able to cater for travellers with special needs such as wheelchairs, carriages or baby chairs must notify the office at the time of booking. Children under the age of 5 years are not permitted on tours. Like most large cities in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv we may experience delays during pick-up and drop off times due to the traffic conditions and unexpected events. For all tours (except for Masada & Dead Sea) modest attire is required for visiting holy places of any religion (men with head covering, women with shoulder covering; for both men and women - no shorts). Changes in itinerary may occur due to holidays, force majeure or circumstances beyond our control.

Touring in Israel

One of the advantages of coach tours is that all the planning and research has already been done for you, and has been tailored into an itinerary that ensures you visit the must-see destinations in Israel with many more of its secrets divulged along the way. In this brochure you will find different touring options that allow you to include as much or as little of Israel as you like. All tours listed are part of a group tour but a similar tour can be organised on private basis as we also cater for individuals who required tailor-made tours by private vehicle and guide or special interest tours. Please contact our friendly staff for more information.

Jerusalem Highlights

• 5 Days

Departs: Sundays

Day 1 Sun: Tel Aviv

Upon arrival to Tel Aviv Airport you will be met by our representative who will be holding a sign with your name on, immediately after passport control. Our representative will guide you to pick up your luggage, after which you will be escorted via Customs to meet your driver who will transfer you to your hotel. Evening at leisure and overnight in Tel Aviv.

Day 2 Mon: Tel Aviv-Masada-Dead Sea- Jerusalem

Meet your tour guide in the morning and set off from Tel Aviv, driving south, passing by the cities of Ashdod and Ashkelon to Beersheba, for a short visit of the capital of the Negev Desert. Continue via Arad to Masada, Israel's foremost archaeological park. Ascend via cable-car for a thorough visit that gives insight to the rituals, politics and culture of the people who inhabited this desert fortress, which was the last stronghold of the Jewish Zealots in their war against the Romans. Visit the excavations, Herod's palaces, the synagogue, bathhouse and cisterns, and enjoy the breathtaking view of the Roman camps and the Dead Sea. Descend to the lowest place on earth - the Dead Sea, to experience the mineral-rich black mud and to float in its salty waters. Passing by the oasis of Ein Gedi, proceed through the Judean Desert to Jerusalem. Overnight in Jerusalem. (B)

Day 3 Tue: Jerusalem New City and Bethlehem

Start the day at the Israel Museum's Shrine of the Book with the famous Dead Sea scrolls, then a visit to the beautifully renovated model of the Herodian city of Jerusalem, dating back to the time of the Second Temple. Enjoy Ein Karem; a picturesque village in the south western outskirts of Jerusalem. This small village has great significance in Christian traditions, since this is where according to tradition John the Baptist was born. Visit Yad Vashem the official memorial to the Jewish victims of the Holocaust, established in 1953, located at the foot of Mt. Herzl. Visit Bethlehem - the birthplace of Jesus at the Church of the Nativity and Manger Square. Return to your Jerusalem hotel for overnight. (B)

Day 4 Wed: Jerusalem Old City

Enter the Old City of Jerusalem where you will see the Western Wall and the actual site of the Second Temple, the Temple Mount. Walk the Way of the Cross, the Via Dolorosa, to Calvary and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, housing both the traditional site of Crucifixion and the Tomb of the Resurrection. To the southwest, just outside the Old City, is Mount Zion, with the traditional tomb of King David and the Room of the Last Supper. Enjoy the spectacular panoramic view of Jerusalem - the holy city for each of the world's three great religions - Christianity, Judaism and Islam, from a top the Mount of Olives. Visit the Garden of Gethsemane where Judas betrayed Jesus. In the heart of a neighborhood in downtown Jerusalem, visit Mahane Yehuda to experience the flavors, aromas, colors and the traders' interaction with the crowds, at the largest open market in Israel. Return to your hotel and overnight in Jerusalem. (B)

Day 5 Thu: Jerusalem-Tel Aviv

Transfer to Tel Aviv airport. (B)

Religious Tours

Groups receive a pilgrim gift pack including a pilgrim certificate signed by the Minister of Tourism and Mayor of Jerusalem

Home to the three great Monotheistic religions; Christianity, Judaism and Islam as well as many others. Israel provides an excellent home base for those wanting to embark on a religious pilgrimage. Many sites important to religions are featured within our programs; however we can custom design any itinerary to suit your specific needs and faith. Visit sites of religious significance such as the Church of Holy Sepulchre for Christians, Masada or the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem. Below we have provided some sample itineraries for the three main religious beliefs, prices based on groups of 20-24 people travelling. Please note that these are only a few suggestions and starting point as the programs can be modified to suit your required timeframe, places of interest or accommodation choice.

Jerusalem Old & New City

• Full Day

Departs: Daily

Pick up from your hotel in order to explore the biblical and cultural highlights of Old and New Jerusalem. Start the tour with a panoramic view of the city from Mount of Olives (may be replaced by Mount Scopus). Enter the Old City through one of its famous gates. Explore the restored Jewish Quarter, one of the four quarters of the walled city. The quarter is home to around 2,000 people and covers about 0.1 square kilometers. It is also the location of many tens of synagogues and yeshivas and has been almost continually home to Jews since the century 8 BCE. Visit the Cardo, an ancient Roman marketplace where you can still shop today. Stop at the Western Wall, the holiest place to the Jewish people. Continue into the Christian Quarter and walk along the Via Dolorosa, following the Stations of the Cross to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Continue in the afternoon for a moving visit to Yad Vashem Holocaust Memorial. (On Saturday instead of Yad Vashem, drive to Ein Karem, southwest of Jerusalem, traditionally known as birthplace of John the Baptist; Stroll in the narrow lanes of the picturesque neighborhood, stopping by Mary's spring and continue to visit the remarkable Church of Saint John the Baptist.) Return to Hotel. Note: Modest dress and head covering are required for visiting holy sites.

Israel General Information

Introduction

Israel is best known as the Holy Land, a country with a rich tapestry of sacred sites for Christians, Jews, Muslims and Bahai's. Adherents of the world's great monotheistic religions are drawn to Israel by their spiritual ties to the land. Israel's tumultuous history has resulted in over 20 civilisations leaving their mark on the land and its cities over a period of 10,000 years making it an archaeological and historical treasure trove. Modern Israel is a vibrant exciting and energetic country with a rich and varied art and culture, exciting nightlife featuring entertainment and cuisine from over 100 countries.

Each part of the magical country has something new and different to discover. Take the time and enjoy every moment of it!

Official Language

Hebrew and Arabic are the official languages; however English is also widely spoken.

Visas

A three month visa is granted to Australian Passport holders upon arrival. There are a few countries that do not accept passports with an Israeli visa in it (Syria, Lebanon, Iran and Libya). For those not wanting a visa stamped into their passport can instead fill out a FORM 17L, which is available in the arrival hall prior to passport control. Without the visa or FORM 17L, you risk being charged VAT Tax by hotels. Entry is granted provided there is more than six months validity on your passport.

Electricity

220AC volts, 50hz. Plugs are two or three pronged cylindrical in style and an adapter will be required.

Time Zone

Israel is two hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time. Israel is approximately seven hours behind Australia during European Summer, and nine hours behind in European Winter.

Climate

Ranging from Mediterranean in the north to arid in the south, there is an area to suit everyone. Israel has long warm to hot and dry summers from May to October. Jerusalem has mild nights and warm days, while the Dead Sea is very hot around this time averaging temperatures 32-38 degrees during summer.

Israel also has cool wet winters from December to February. Generally the Dead Sea region is warm to hot all year round with temperatures staying high, even during winter, which makes it a perfect winter spa escape.

Average Monthly Temperatures (Degrees celcius):

Average Temps	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Jerusalem	Low	5	5	6	10	13	16	18	17	14	10	6
	High	10	11	14	20	24	26	27	26	23	18	13

Population

Israel had a population of just over 8.2million in 2014.

Food

Israeli food is generally a mix of East and West. Most restaurants are moderately priced with menus in both Hebrew and English. National specialties include Falafel (deep fried balls of mashed chickpeas), Hummus, Tahina (sesame seed sauce). In addition there are favourites such as shashlik which is charcoal meat on a skewer, shwarma, slices of grilled meat served in a pita bread, bean stews and a Shabbat meat stew called cholent. A huge buffet Israeli breakfast features at all hotels.

Currency

Israeli Shekel, 100 Agorots is equal to 1 Shekel; however $USD is widely accepted. Visa and MasterCard are the preferred credit cards and most tourist areas have ATMs. Most banks are open from Sunday to Thursday from 0830-1200 and from 1600-1800 on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday. On Fridays and the eves of major Jewish holidays, banks are open from 0830-1200.

Getting There

By Air: El Al offers most direct flights to Israel via Bangkok linking with either Qantas, Thai or British Airways ex Australia or from Hong Kong linking with Cathay or Qantas ex Australia. Royal Jordanian connects with Thai or Qantas via Bangkok from Australia also services Israel via Amman.

By Sea: Haifa is Israel's main port. There are regular cruises from Cyprus to Israel but no ferry service.

By Land: Access into Israel from Jordan is via the three bridges on the Eastern side of the country, the Sheikh Hussein Crossing in the north, the Allenby Bridge in the centre and the Arava Crossing in the south. There is also access via Egypt between Taba and the Red Sea resort city of Eilat.

Getting Around

Internal flights are only available between Eilat and Tel Aviv. Israel's national bus service links most cities and towns. Israel also has a convenient, efficient and inexpensive train network lining Israel's coastal cities and Jerusalem and Tel Aviv. Buses and trains don't run on Shabbat (from Friday sunset to Saturday sunset). Pre purchased tours are recommended for those who are hoping to travel and sightsee during these times.

Shared taxis (sheruts), which are a cheap and popular form of transport run seven days a week. Operating similar to a bus, these taxis run on a fixed route for a fixed price, private taxis are available all week. A rental car is recommended for those who want to cover a lot of ground quickly, however it should be noted that Jerusalem and Tel Aviv have serious parking problems and traffic is congested.

Accommodation

Israel has a comprehensive range of accommodation types available from budget to luxury including hotels, holiday villages, self catering apartments or rooms, and hostels. In addition there is some unique accommodation such as Christian hospices or Kibbutz guest houses. Pre-booking accommodation is the best choice for a stress free holiday, with quality hotels, at a decent price. Most hotels in Israel serve kosher food which meets Jewish dietary laws and dictate that certain foods cannot be served together. You will find breakfast buffets to be opulent with a large variety of food, however you won't find meat or cold meats and dairy (cheese) or meat and fish served at the same buffet.

Shopping

Israel offers the choice of modern shopping malls or colourful markets, Best buys include cut and polished diamonds, glass and silver items, jewellery, Dead Sea cosmetics and skin care as well as religious items. Bargaining is not standard in Israel except in the Market areas. Tourists benefit from a zero VAT (Value Added Tax) on most items, and buying from shops displaying the Ministry of Tourism sign enables the possibility of a VAT refund at the airport or land border crossing point of departure. Most Israeli shops are open from Sunday to Thursday, 0800-1900. Some shops close between 1300-1600 for an afternoon break, on Fridays, some shops close early, and others, mainly Jewish stores close for Shabbat. In Christian and Muslim districts in cities such as Jerusalem and Nazareth shops are open during the Jewish Sabbath.

Tipping

Tipping is expected for taxis, hotel portage and guides, however with all other services, tipping is optional. Recommended tips are as follows: meals in restaurants between 10-15% of bill, however, many include a 12% service charge and as such, a tip is not required. Other tipping includes:

tour guides US$10 pp/day, tour drivers US$6 pp/day, private tours US$20-US$30 per car/day, transfer drivers US$6/transfer and porters US$1 per bag.

Things To Do

Jerusalem: The holy city is host to a multitude of religions and cultures and this has resulted in many sights to see. Enter into the old city by the Jaffa Gate and David's Tower with its fantastic views of Temple Mount. Explore the Old City Quarters with Jewish, Muslim, Christian and Armenian cultures all contributing to 4 very distinct quarters. Highlights include the Western Wall, the newly reconstructed Hulda steps leading to Jerusalem Archaeological Park, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre; one of Christianity's most sacred places, believed to be built upon the site of Christ's Crucifixion and the Via Dolorosa. Admire the Dome of the Rock, and find a bargain in the street markets. Modern Jerusalem is a vibrant city. Other highlights include the Israel Museum containing the famous Dead Sea Scrolls, and Yad Vashem, Israel's memorial to the Holocaust of WWII.

Dead Sea: Experience the lowest point on earth where anyone can float.

Masada: Be amazed at the sheer size of Masada and explore the ruins of King Herod's palace, perched high on the ridge. Here 900 Jewish Zealots held the Roman legions at bay for 4 years between AD 69-73. Enjoy the lush spring water oasis of Ein Gedi and visit Qumran where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found.

Galilee: Gain inspiration from the Sea of Galilee as the place of Jesus' worship and to the ruins of the ancient Synagogue at Capernaum. Nearby Tabgha is the site of the miracle of the Fishes and Loaves and a few kms away is the Mount of Beatitudes where Jesus delivered the Sermon. Visit Cana, where Jesus turned water into wine and Jesus' home town of Nazareth.

Bethlehem: Controlled by the Palestinian Authority, but accessible in group tours from Jerusalem just 9kms away, Jesus' birthplace is located within the walls of the Church of Nativity.

Tel Aviv: Visit the charming neighbourhood of Neve Zedek, see the unique bauhaus buildings around the city that earned UNESCO heritage status and the title of 'the white city'. Jaffa is the Mediterranean's most ancient seaport and now a popular suburb of Tel Aviv.

Haifa: The highlight of this port city is the Gold domed Bahai Temple and Formal Gardens which ascend the slopes of Mount Carmel in 13 stages.

Negev & Eilat: The southern half of Israel is dominated by the stark grandeur of the Negev Desert. Beersheba has special significance for Australians as the site of a great ANZAC victory of WWI. At Israel's southern tip is the vibrant Red Sea resort city of Eilat from which travellers can enjoy the coral beneath Eilat's warm waters. From Eilat it is an easy crossing from Israel into either Egypt or Jordan.
