Welcome to Israel

Halina Kubica
Owner & Managing Director

Sitting between the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan River, Israel has something for everyone. Whether you are interested in visiting Jerusalem, one of the oldest cities in the world, or experiencing the lowest point on earth – the Dead Sea, Israel is truly a remarkable country. Israel is home to the Sea of Galilee, the ancient port of Jaffa with its sprawling markets, cobbled docks and crumbling city walls and city of Jerusalem considered holy by three major religions - Christianity, Judaism and Islam. The modern city of Tel Aviv has excellent restaurants, nightlife and shopping. In the north, Haifa, Nazareth and Acre are the must. With mountains, fertile valleys, desert and a significant coastline, in Israel you can experience history, culture, nature and delicious food.

Let us show you Israel - a land of discovery waiting to be explored – a nation quite unlike anywhere else.

Choose your travel style

We have Israel completely covered with a travel style to suit everyone. All of our programs include special deals with selected hotels, transfers and tours providers, which makes our Israel getaways perfect for travellers interested in a value for money and wonderful experience.

Regular Tours

Whether you are keen on changing hotels every night or prefer to base yourself in one place, our short-day or weekly coach tours can accommodate your needs. Minimise the travel with a variety of day tours (some are bilingual) where you'll be picked up from your hotel each day before being returned to your hotel every night. These bus tours can include up to 54 people (average 20-50 people) depending on season. Small group option is available for our short-day tours. For one of our more popular options, embark on one of our weekly coach tours that visits all the must-see sights staying overnight in the areas you'll be visiting. Some programs also combine day tours with extended coach touring and focus on the religious and biblical sites of Israel.

Private Tours

Booking a private tour with us ensures maximum comfort as you avoid the hassles of travelling with a large group. All private tours are provided in an air conditioned vehicle with English speaking qualified guides to get the most of your sightseeing. Private tours can operate any day and can be customised for any duration, include any standard of accommodation and meals and unique experiences can be added for part or whole trip.

Group Tours

Want to take in all the sights and make new friends along the way? Our group tours can allow you to do just that and more. Perhaps embark on a religious pilgrimage as Israel is home to the three great Monotheistic religions; Christianity, Judaism and Islam as well as many others. Many sites important to religions are featured within our programs; however, we can custom design any itinerary to suit your specific needs and faith. See from page 20.

Self-Drive Israel

Driving through Israel is a great option for independent travellers. We offer a range of the most popular options as well as the possibility to tailor make the journey to match your exact wishes. See from page 18.

Combined Tours with Egypt & Jordan

Great for those looking to combine Israel with its neighbouring countries of Jordan and Egypt. Perfect for those who want to take advantage of the ease of travelling small distances between countries. See from page 19.

Touring in Israel

One of the advantages of coach tours is that all the planning and research has already been done for you, and has been tailored into an itinerary that ensures you visit the must-see destinations in Israel with many more of its secrets divulged along the way. In this brochure you will find different touring options that allow you to include as much or as little of Israel as you like. All tours listed are part of a group tour but a similar tour can be organised on private basis as we also cater for individuals who required tailor-made tours by private vehicle and guide or special interest tours. Please contact our friendly staff for more information.

Hotels Used in our Programs

We have negotiated very competitive prices at the hotels which we use in our programs. We have selected these hotels as they offer superb value for money without compromising on standard. Their staff offer friendly and helpful service and understand the needs of our Australian clients. Bronze - usually 3 star hotels; Silver - usually 4 star hotels; Gold - usually 4 and a half to five star hotels. Deluxe - usually 5 star hotels with hotels or boutique style hotels.

Tel Aviv

Day 2 Mon: Tel Aviv-Masada-Dead Sea- Jerusalem

Meet your tour guide in the morning and set off from Tel Aviv, driving south, passing by the cities of Ashdod and Ashkelon to Beersheba, for a short visit of the capital of the Negev Desert. Continue via Arad to Masada, Israel's foremost archaeological park. Ascend via cable-car for a thorough visit that gives insight to the rituals, politics and culture of the people who inhabited this desert fortress, which was the last stronghold of the Jewish Zealots in their war against the Romans. Visit the excavations, Herod's palaces, the synagogue, bathhouse and cisterns, and enjoy the breathtaking view of the Roman camps and the Dead Sea. Descend to the lowest place on earth – the Dead Sea, to experience the mineral-rich black mud and to float in its salty waters. Passing by the oasis of Ein Gedi, proceed through the Judean Desert to Jerusalem. Overnight in Jerusalem. (B)

Day 3 Tue: Jerusalem New City-Bethlehem

Start the day at the Israel Museum's Shrine of the Book with the famous Dead Sea scrolls, then a visit to the beautifully renovated model of the Herodian city of Jerusalem, dating back to the time of the Second Temple. Enjoy Ein Karem; a picturesque village in the south western outskirts of Jerusalem. This small village has great significance in Christian traditions, since this is where according to tradition John the Baptist was born. Visit Yad Vashem the official memorial to the Jewish victims of the Holocaust, established in 1953, located at the foot of Mt. Hertzl. Visit Bethlehem – the birthplace of Jesus at the Church of the Nativity and Manger Square. Return to your Jerusalem hotel for overnight. (B)

Day 4 Wed: Jerusalem Old City

Enter the Old City of Jerusalem where you will see the Western Wall and the actual site of the Second Temple, the Temple Mount. Walk the Way of the Cross, the Via Dolorosa, to Calvary and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, housing both the traditional site of Crucifixion and the Tomb of the Resurrection. To the southwest, just outside the Old City, is Mount Zion, with the traditional tomb of King David and the Room of the Last Supper. Enjoy the spectacular panoramic view of Jerusalem - the holy city for each of the world's three great religions – Christianity, Judaism and Islam, from a top the Mount of Olives. Visit the Garden of Gethsemane where Judas betrayed Jesus. In the heart of a neighborhood in downtown Jerusalem, visit Mahane Yehuda to experience the flavors, aromas, colors and the traders' interaction with the crowds, at the largest open market in Israel. Return to your hotel and overnight in Jerusalem. (B)

Day 5 Thu: Jerusalem-Tel Aviv

Transfer to Tel Aviv airport. (B)

Day 1: Tel Aviv

Airport meeting assistance and escort to car rental desk to collect your car. Make your way to hotel in Tel Aviv.

Day 2: Tel Aviv-Jaffa-Tel Aviv

Free day. We recommend starting your day with a short walking tour in the picturesque alleys of the old, fortified town of Jaffa (Joppa). Head South to the town of Rehovot where we recommend a short tour of the Ayalon Institute before returning to Tel Aviv to visit the Palmach Museum. Overnight in Tel Aviv. (B)

Day 3: Tel Aviv-Nazareth-Tiberias

This morning depart northwards to the port city of Haifa where we recommend a tour of the magnificent Bahai Gardens from atop Mount Carmel. Continue for a visit to Nazareth Village, a unique reconstruction of a first century village of the Bible. Head to the colourful markets of Nazareth to collect your tickets for a unique market tasting tour of the best and most interesting food stalls. Overnight Tiberias. (B)

Day 4: Tiberias-Sea of Galilee-Tiberias

This morning we recommend a morning cruise sailing the Sea of Galilee in a traditional wooden boat. See an original fishing boat from the first century and hear the story of its amazing discovery. Return to Tiberias for overnight. (B)

Day 5: Tiberias-Jordan Valley-Jerusalem

Depart the Sea of Galilee via the fertile Jordan Valley to experience the Naharayim - an audiovisual display combining dams, sounds and colour to illustrate the operation of the old power plant. Visit Old Gesher and the Hospitaller castle of Belvoir for an amazing outlook over Northern Israel. Ascend the mountains to the holy city of Jerusalem. Overnight in Jerusalem. (B)

Day 6: Jerusalem Old City

Enjoy a day exploring the old city of Jerusalem. Visit the excavations in the Tyropoeon Valley and walk through a section of the Herodian Channel. Explore the tunnels at the Western Wall and continue to the Chain of Generations Center and The Temple Institute's Visitors Center. We recommend an evening sound & light show at the Tower of David Museum. (B)

Day 7: Jerusalem New City

Recommended tour of the Israeli Parliament, The Knesset, to explore the inner workings of the country's seat of power. Then visit the Israel Museum and see the famous Dead Seas Scrolls at the Shrine of the Book. Perhaps embark on a guided tour of the Yad Vashem Holocaust Memorial and visit the new Friends of Zion Museum. (B)

Day 8: Jerusalem-Masada-Dead Sea

Israel General Information

Introduction

Israel is best known as the Holy Land, a country with a rich tapestry of sacred sites for Christians, Jews, Muslims and Bahá'ís. Adherents of the world's great monotheistic religions are drawn to Israel by their spiritual ties to the land. Israel's tumultuous history has resulted in over 20 civilisations leaving their mark on the land and its cities over a period of 10,000 years making it an archaeological and historical treasure trove. Modern Israel is a vibrant exciting and energetic country with a rich and varied art and culture, exciting nightlife featuring entertainment and cuisine from over 100 countries. Each part of the magical country has something new and different to discover. Take the time and enjoy every moment of it!

Official Language

Hebrew and Arabic are official languages however English is also widely spoken.

Visas

A three month visa is granted to Australian Passport holders upon arrival. There are a few countries that do not accept passports with an Israeli visa in it (Syria, Lebanon, Iran and Libya). For those not wanting a visa stamped into their passport can instead fill out a FORM 17L, which is available in the arrival hall prior to passport control. Without the visa or FORM 17L, you risk being charge VAT Tax by hotels. Entry is granted provided there is more than six months validity on your passport.

Electricity

220AC volts, 50hz. Plugs are two or three pronged cylindrical in style and an adapter will be required.

Time Zone

Israel is two hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time. Israel is approximately seven hours behind Australia during European Summer, and nine hours behind in European Winter.

Climate

Ranging from Mediterranean in the north to arid in the south, there is an area to suit everyone. Israel has long warm to hot and dry summers from May to October. Jerusalem has mild nights and warm days, while the Dead Sea is very hot around this time averaging temperatures 32-38 degrees during summer. Israel also has cool wet winters from December to February. Generally the Dead Sea region is warm to hot all year round with temperatures staying high, even during winter, which makes it a perfect winter spa escape.

Average Monthly Temperatures (Degrees celcius)

Higher temperature often in Summer:

Average Temps	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Jerusalem	Low	6	7	9	12	16	18	19	19	18	17	8
	High	12	13	16	21	25	27	29	28	25	19	14

Food

Israeli food is generally a mix of East and West. Most restaurants are moderately priced with menus in both Hebrew and English. National specialties include Falafel (deep fried balls of mashed chickpeas), Hummus, Tahina (sesame seed sauce). In addition there are favourites such as shashlik which is charcoal meat on a skewer, shwarma, slices of grilled meat served in a pita bread, bean stews and a Shabbat meat stew called cholent. A huge buffet Israeli breakfast features at all hotels.

Currency

Israeli Shekel, 100 Agorots is equal to 1 Shekel; however $USD is widely accepted. Visa and MasterCard are the preferred credit cards and most tourist areas have ATMs. Most banks are open from Sunday to Thursday from 0830-1200 and from 1600-1800 on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday. On Fridays and the eves of major Jewish holidays, banks are open from 0830-1200.

Population

Israel had a population of just over 8.2million in 2014.

Getting There

By Air: El Al offers most direct flights to Israel via Bangkok linking with either Qantas, Thai or British Airways ex Australia or from Hong Kong linking with Cathay or Qantas ex Australia. Royal Jordanian connects with Thai or Qantas via Bangkok from Australia also services Israel via Amman.

By Sea: Haifa is Israel's main port. There are regular cruises from Cyprus to Israel but no ferry service.

By Land: Access into Israel from Jordan is via the three bridges on the Eastern side of the country, the Sheikh Hussein Crossing in the north, the Allenby Bridge in the centre and the Arava Crossing in the south. There is also access via Egypt between Taba and the Red Sea resort city of Eilat.

Getting Around

Internal flights are only available between Eilat and Tel Aviv. Israel's national bus service links most cities and towns. Israel also has a convenient, efficient and inexpensive train network lining Israel's coastal cities and Jerusalem and Tel Aviv. Buses and trains don't run on Shabbat (from Friday sunset to Saturday sunset). Pre purchased tours are recommended for those who are hoping to travel and sightsee during these times. Shared taxis (sheruts), which are a cheap and popular form of transport run seven days a week. Operating similar to a bus, these taxis run on a fixed route for a fixed price, private taxis are available all week. A rental car is recommended for those who want to cover a lot of ground quickly, however it should be noted that Jerusalem and Tel Aviv have serious parking problems and traffic is congested.

Accommodation

Israel has a comprehensive range of accommodation types available from budget to luxury including hotels, holiday villages, self catering apartments or rooms, and hostels. In addition there is some unique accommodation such as Christian hospices or Kibbutz guest houses. Pre-booking accommodation is the best choice for a stress free holiday, with quality hotels, at a decent price. Most hotels in Israel serve kosher food which meets Jewish dietary laws and dictate that certain foods cannot be served together. You will find breakfast buffets to be opulent with a large variety of food, however you won't find meat or cold meats and dairy (cheese) or meat and fish served at the same buffet.

National Holidays 2020

Shopping

Israel offers the choice of modern shopping malls or colourful markets. Best buys include cut and polished diamonds, glass and silver items, jewellery, Dead Sea cosmetics and skin care as well as religious items. Bargaining is not standard in Israel except in the Market areas. Tourists benefit from a zero VAT (Value Added Tax) on most items, and buying from shops displaying the Ministry of Tourism sign enables the possibility of a VAT refund at the airport or land border crossing point of departure. Most Israeli shops are open from Sunday to Thursday, 0800-1900. Some shops close between 1300-1600 for an afternoon break, on Fridays, some shops close early, and others, mainly Jewish stores close for Shabbat. In Christian and Muslim districts in cities such as Jerusalem and Nazareth shops are open during the Jewish Sabbath.

Tipping

Tipping is expected for taxis, hotel portage and guides, however with all other services, tipping is optional. Recommended tips are as follows: meals in restaurants between 10-15% of bill, however, many include a 12% service charge and as such, a tip is not required.

Other tipping includes: tour guides US$10 pp/day, tour drivers US$6 pp/day, private tours US$20-US$30 per car/day, transfer drivers US$6/transfer and porters US$1 per bag.

Things To Do

Jerusalem: The holy city is host to a multitude of religions and cultures and this has resulted in many sights to see. Enter into the old city by the Jaffa Gate and David's Tower with its fantastic views of Temple Mount. Explore the Old City Quarters with Jewish, Muslim, Christian and Armenian cultures all contributing to 4 very distinct quarters. Highlights include the Western Wall, the newly reconstructed Hulda steps leading to Jerusalem Archaeological Park, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre; one of Christianity's most sacred places, believed to be built upon the site of Christ's Crucifixion and the Via Dolorosa. Admire the Dome of the Rock, and find a bargain in the street markets. Modern Jerusalem is a vibrant city. Other highlights include the Israel Museum containing the famous Dead Sea Scrolls, and Yad Vashem, Israel's memorial to the Holocaust of WWII.

Dead Sea: Experience the lowest point on earth where anyone can float.

Masada: Be amazed at the sheer size of Masada and explore the ruins of King Herod's palace, perched high on the ridge. Here 900 Jewish Zealots held the Roman legions at bay for 4 years between AD 69-73. Enjoy the lush spring water oasis of Ein Gedi and visit Qumran where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found.

Galilee: Gain inspiration from the Sea of Galilee as the place of Jesus' worship and to the ruins of the ancient Synagogue at Capernaum. Nearby Tabgha is the site of the miracle of the Fishes and Loaves and a few kms away is the Mount of Beatitudes where Jesus delivered the Sermon. Visit Cana, where Jesus turned water into wine and Jesus' home town of Nazareth.

Bethlehem: Controlled by the Palestinian Authority, but accessible in group tours from Jerusalem just 9kms away, Jesus' birthplace is located within the walls of the Church of Nativity.

Tel Aviv: Visit the charming neighbourhood of Neve Zedek, see the unique bauhaus buildings around the city that earned UNESCO heritage status and the title of 'the white city'. Jaffa is the Mediterranean's most ancient seaport and now a popular suburb of Tel Aviv.

Haifa: The highlight of this port city is the Gold domed Bahai Temple and Formal Gardens which ascend the slopes of Mount Carmel in 13 stages.

Negev & Eilat: The southern half of Israel is dominated by the stark grandeur of the Negev Desert. Beersheba has special significance for Australians as the site of a great ANZAC victory of WWII. At Israel's southern tip is the vibrant Red Sea resort city of Eilat from which travellers can enjoy the coral beneath Eilat's warm waters. From Eilat it is an easy crossing from Israel into either Egypt or Jordan.

Booking Conditions

Validity: Brochure is valid 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2020, unless dates under individual land components state otherwise.

How to Book: Contact your Travel Agent or Greece and Mediterranean Travel Centre Pty Ltd to make your reservations.
