Welcome to Egypt

Halina Kubica
Owner & Managing Director

I love the iconic and exotic charms of Egypt, home of the Pharaohs, Valley of the Kings, and one of the most significant archaeological discoveries in history – the tomb of Tutankhamun. I prefer to experience Egypt a little differently than others because you can't beat a luxurious river cruise down the Nile. Not only do you get to tour the stunning wonders of Egypt, you also get a view like no other, and sunsets others can't even imagine from the comfort of the boat.

Let us show you the welcoming land of Egypt full of character, colour, and rich history.

Let us take you on the Trip of a Lifetime

Greece and Mediterranean Travel Centre is your local boutique Australian owned and operated company. We have been designing holidays with the Australian traveller in mind for over 17 years. With personal, hands-on service, you can rest assured that your holiday will be impeccable from start to finish.

A very special experience awaits you

Frequent & Flexible Departures

Most itineraries operate daily although the sequence of the itinerary may vary depending on arrival day in Cairo or alternative cruise used.

Private Tours

Booking your tour with us gives you the comfort of travelling on your own private tour without the hassles of a large group. Transfers are provided in an airconditioned vehicle with driver and English speaking escort. All sightseeing tours (except the ones which are part of the cruise) are conducted on a private basis with both a driver and English speaking Egyptologist guide. Jordan parts are on private basis as well but Israel components are conducted on a group tour basis.

Night Arrivals or Departures

Our transfer are available 24 hours a day with no surcharge for night service. In the event that pre or post tour (that includes transfers) accommodation is booked with us, then transfers will still be provided to you at no additional cost.

English Only

All of our tours are conducted in English only. Should you wish to have a guide speaking another language, let us know at time of booking so that we can arrange this for you.

Guaranteed Departures

All individual programs have guaranteed departures even with only one person. Once your tour has been booked and confirmed it will not be cancelled due to lack of numbers. We do not combine clients into groups (except while on Nilecruise where you travel with other passengers)

Free Gift with Every Booking

All our clients receive an original papyrus illustrating life in ancient Egypt while in Egypt. The English word 'paper' is derived from the word 'Papyrus', an Egyptian word that originally meant "that which belongs to the house". Papyrus has become synonymous with Egypt's culture and history and is the perfect memento for your journey.

Free Water

During tours and transfers we provide a free bottle of water for passenger. Water is not included during meals at restaurants or on Nile cruises or their tours.

Guides

We take extreme pride in working with only the best guides available. All of our guides are qualified English speaking University graduates Egyptologists with more than five years' experience and are familiar with need of Australians.

Day 1: Cairo

Be met at the Cairo airport before being transferred to hotel for overnight.

Day 2: Cairo-Sightseeing

In the morning you'll be picked up from your hotel for a full day sightseeing tour. Start with a guided tour of the Great Pyramids of Giza and Sphinx. It is believed that Khafre's workers shaped the stone into the lion and gave it their king's face over 4,500 years ago. Continue to Memphis and see a colossal statue of Ramses II and a great alabaster Sphinx. Continue to nearby Sakkara, best known for the The Step Pyramid of Zoser I, the oldest known of Egypt's 97 pyramids. (B)

Day 3: Cairo-Sightseeing

A private guide and driver will accompany you from your hotel for a half-day tour of one of the greatest museums of the World, The Egyptian Museum of Antiquities. The museum has 107 halls and exhibits over 120,000 objects from the pre-historic era to the Greco-Roman period. See the boy-king Tutankhamun's treasures discovered in his tomb including god-like golden mask, two of his three coffins along with stunning jewellery, chariots, chairs and toys. Enjoy your afternoon at leisure. (B)

Day 4: Cairo-Luxor-Cruising

In the morning transfer to Cairo airport for flight to Luxor. On arrival in Luxor transfer to pier for embarkation. Enjoy lunch on board. In an unforgettable excursion you will be driven to the Luxor Temple, which was built by two great pharaohs Amenhotep III and Ramses II. Travel along an avenue of ramheaded sphinxes, extending for about two miles, which link Luxor Temple with the Karnak Temple. No site in the world makes a more overwhelming and lasting impression than this "Temple of all Temples". (B, L, D)

Day 5: Cruising-Luxor-Esna-Edfu

Tour the West Bank including visits to the Valley of the Kings housing many of the tombs of pharaohs from the New Kingdom. Continue to Queen Hatshepsut's Temple, the only woman pharaoh to reign in ancient Egypt, followed by stop near Colossi of Memnon - two massive stone statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III. Afternoon sail to Edfu via Esna Lock. (B, L, D)

Philae Temple

Day 6: Cruising-Edfu-Kom Ombo-Aswan

In Edfu see the temple that is dedicated to Horus with inscriptions that describe the founding and construction methods of similar temples; completed during the Ptolemaic age it also explains various daily rituals and myths of ancient times. Sail to Kom Ombo and visit its Temple. In ancient Egypt the city was important to the caravan routes from Nubia and various gold mines. (B, L, D)

Day 7: Cruising-Aswan

Visit the legendary Philae, the sacred monuments built for the cult of Isis and Osiris and the modern High Dam of Aswan. It was an engineering miracle when it was built in the 1960s. It contains 18 times the material used in the Great Pyramid of Cheops. Afternoon sail by traditional felucca boat around Kitchener's island and Agha Khan Mausoleum. (B, L, D)

Day 8: Aswan-Cairo

After breakfast transfer to the airport. On arrival in Cairo transfer to hotel. (B)

Karnak Temple

Departs: Daily

Day 1: Cairo

On arrival transfer from Cairo airport to hotel. Enjoy the day at leisure.

Day 2: Cairo-Sightseeing

Today take a full day private guided tour of the Great Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx. The ‘Great’ pyramid itself is truly an astonishing work of engineering skill. For over 4,000 years it was the tallest building in the world. Continue to Memphis to see the colossal statue of Ramses II and the great alabaster Sphinx. Nearby at Sakkara view the oldest pyramid in the world, The Step Pyramid of Zoser I. (B)

Day 3: Cairo-Train to Aswan

Spend the morning at your leisure. We recommend a visit to the Grand Bazaar. Be picked up from your hotel after lunch for a private tour of The Egyptian Museum - one of the greatest museums of the World. Here you will see the amazing Tutankhamun’s treasures. Afterwards your tour guide will escort you to the train station where you will board an overnight sleeper train to Aswan. Dinner will be served on board. (B, D)

Day 4: Aswan-Cruising

Upon arrival in the early morning you will be met and transferred to your cruise vessel with embarkation before lunch. After lunch enjoy a felucca ride around the Botanical Gardens and Elephantine Island. From your vantage point on the felucca you will see Agha Khan Mausoleum, situated on the top of a hill, commanding a magnificent view of Aswan area. On the West Bank the desolate hillside is dotted with the Tombs of the Nobles. (B, L, D)

Day 5: Cruising-Aswan-Kom Ombo-Edfu

After breakfast visit the High Dam and Philae Temple dedicated to the goddess Isis. Continue with a leisurely sail to Kom Ombo where you will visit its temple located on the banks of the Nile. Sail to Edfu. (B, L, D)

Day 6: Cruising-Edfu-Esna-Luxor

Breakfast on board. Visit the Temple of Horus, considered by most to be the best preserved cult temple in Egypt. According to Egyptian myths it was the place where the falcon-headed god Horus avenged the murder of his father Osiris by killing Seth. After lunch sail to Luxor. Your boat will cross Esna Lock on the way. (B, L, D)

Day 7: Cruising-Luxor

The morning tour of the West Bank will take you to visit the Valley of the Kings. From Thutmose I in the eighteenth Dynasty of the New Kingdom period all the kings, and occasionally high officials of that period, were buried in the secluded wadi, or dry gully, which today is called Valley of the Kings. Continue your tour with a visit to Queen Hatshepsut’s Temple and then admire giant statues called Colossi of Memnon. After lunch travel along the avenue of ramheaded sphinxes to Luxor and Karnak Temple - the main centre of worship in ancient Egypt. (B, L, D)

Day 8: Luxor-Train to Cairo

Disembarkation after breakfast. Day at leisure in Luxor to explore this unique city. Afternoon transfer to the train station for the sleeper train to Cairo. Dinner will be served on board. (B, D)

Day 1: Cairo

Arrival in Cairo, meet and greet at airport before being transferred to your hotel. Rest of day at leisure.

Day 2: Cairo

Today our Egyptologist will guide you through the amazing sights of Cairo. Discover the delights at the Egyptian Museum of Antiquities. See some of the most famous artefacts discovered including those from King Tutankhamen. See his chariots, gloves, jewellery and most famously, the Golden Funerary Mask. Afternoon see the spectacular Pyramids and the Sphinx magnificently situated on Giza Plateau. (B)

Day 3: Cairo-Aswan-Cruising

Transfer from hotel to Cairo airport for short flight to Aswan. On arrival transfer to the port. Optional Abu simbel tour. Embark on the cruise vessel at lunch time and visit the High Dam and the Island Temple Philae. Revere this temple dedicated to the Goddess Isis, celebrated as the ideal mother and wife and the patron of nature and magic. (B, L, D)

Day 4: Cruising-Aswan-Kom Ombo-Edfu-Esna

After breakfast sail to Kom Ombo, once known as Nubt, or the City of Gold. It is here that we can see the imposing temple dedicated to two very different gods. Sobek, the Crocodile god, and Haroeris, the Falcon God. Admire the Egyptian ingenuity with the invention of the Nilometer, once used to calculate the height, and ultimately the success of the annual flood. Continue onto Edfu and tour the Temple of Horus. Admire this Ptolemaic temple, which was only recently discovered and excavated from the sand which covered it for over two thousand years. This temple, is believed to be the best preserved one available to tour in Egypt. Depart after lunch for Luxor via Esna where your vessel crosses the lock. Discover this city, once known as Thebes and was a bustling metropolis of trade. (B, L, D)

Day 5: Cruising-Esna-Luxor

Today we cross the West Bank to tour the legendary Valley of the Kings and visit some of its famous tombs. Admire the massive Colossi of Memnon and discover the Funerary Temple of Queen Hatshepsut. Return to the cruise vessel for an overnight. (B, L, D)

Day 6: Luxor-Sharm El Sheikh

Disembark after breakfast for your guided tour of the East Bank of Luxor. Once known as Thebes, the East bank was home to a bustling ancient metropolis. Today, see the Temples of Luxor and Karnak and the Avenue of Sphinxes which once linked them across the city and is generally characterised as the "world's largest open air museum". Continue on to the airport for your flight to Sharm El Sheikh. (direct or via Cairo). Once a tiny fishing village, Sharm is now known as the "City of Peace" due to its proximity to Israel. Rest of the day at leisure. (B)

Day 7: Sharm El Sheikh-St Catherine-Sharm El Sheikh

Depart this morning for the mountainous city of St Catherine, famous for its monastery, believed to be the oldest continually inhabited monastery, explore this UNESCO World Heritage listed site. Mount Sinai, believed to be the place where Moses received the Ten Commandments. Overnight Sharm El Sheikh. (B)

Sharm El Sheikh

Wadi Rum

Day 8: Sharm El Sheikh-Taba Border-Aqaba

Day 10: Petra

Enjoy a full day tour of the World Heritage Listed Site of Petra. This Nabataean City is half built and half carved into the rock face. Only discovered in 1812, this famous archaeological site is famous for the stunning treasury, with its impressive red façade. Other wonders of the fabulous city include tombs, temples, funerary halls and rock reliefs. (B, D)

Day 11: Petra-Mt Nebo-Madaba-Dead Sea

Head to Mt Nebo this morning to visit one of the most holy sites in Jordan. It is here which was an early Christian pilgrimage location. It is here where Moses is thought to have died and consequently a temple was constructed in his memory. Continue onto Madaba, also known as the city of Mosaics, an ancient town mentioned in the Bible during the time of Exodus around 1200BC. Resume the journey onto the Dead sea, location of the lowest point on earth. Enjoy your time floating on the unsinkable sea and soak up the nutrients and minerals of the water. Dinner and overnight at your hotel. (B, D)

Day 12: Dead Sea-Jerash-Amman

Depart the Dead Sea for Jerash, location of a Greco-Roman settlement, known to have broken records for its record human settlement since neolithic times. Wander through the ruins of this remarkable city, one of the best Roman Provincial towns outside of Europe. Wander the colonnaded streets and admire the architecture of centuries ago such as Hadrian's Triumphal Arch. Continue onto Amman to appreciate the ancient mixed with the modern. See the Citadel, the Forum and Roman Theatre. Tour Amman and discover the amazing Mosque of King Abdullah the First and the modern parts of the city with its amazing shopping. (B, D)

Cairo General Information

There are 3 terminals at Cairo Airport.

- Terminal 1 – Old Airport: Almost all airlines of the Arab countries use this terminal
- Terminal 2 – New Airport: Air France & Saudi Arabia for now, some others expected
- Terminal 3 – New Airport: All Egypt Air flights (domestic & international) use this terminal in addition to Star Alliance (Lufthansa, Swiss, Austrian, Turkish Air, etc).

The distance between Cairo Airport & the different major areas are as follows.

- Cairo Airport/Heliopolis area: 5 – 7 km (approx. 20 – 30 minutes drive)
- Cairo Airport/Down Town area: 15 – 20 km (approx. 45 – 60 minutes drive)
- Cairo Airport/Pyramids area: 25 – 30 km (approx. 60 – 90 minutes drive)

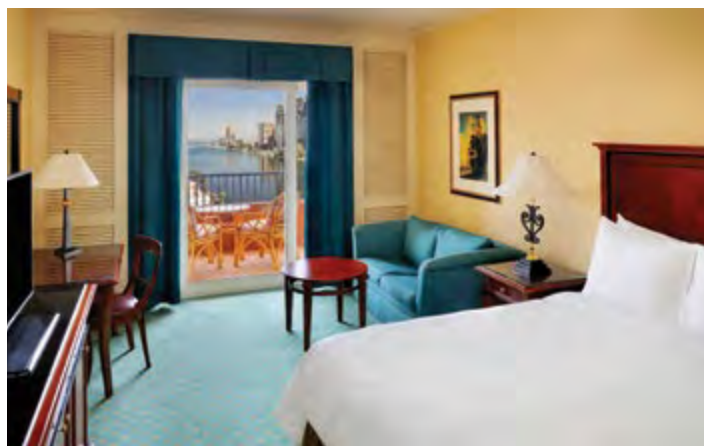

Terminal 2 & 3 are very close to each other and passengers can walk between them (5 minutes walking).

Distance between Terminal 1 and Terminal 2 + 3 is approx. 1 km and there is a shuttle bus which transports passengers between them .

This shuttle bus service is provided for free by Cairo Airport Authority but we recommend our airport assistance transfer service instead to assure clients convenience.

Luxor Balloon Ride

Morning

Departs Luxor: Daily

Enjoy a sunrise balloon ride over Luxor's West Bank. Pick up from your hotel early morning for transfer to the West Bank. Some refreshments (tea, coffee, cake and sweets) will be served before your balloon ride in the skies of Egypt's biggest open-air museum, Luxor. The length of flight depends on the weather but it usually lasts about 30 to 40 minutes. Enjoy the bird's-eye view overlooking the whole West Bank dipped into the rays of the rising sun. View the magnificent mortuary temples and the rugged mountains, the fertility of the fields on one side and the bareness of the desert on the other. An experience never to be forgotten as the scenery passes below. Transfer back to your hotel is included.

Egypt General Information

Introduction

Wherever you turn in Egypt, you will be amazed by the history, the culture and the friendliness of the locals. This cradle of civilisation is a living museum which attributes its mysteries to its ancient and current culture. Walk through history, past the Pyramids and numerous temples throughout the country including Abu Simbel, the location of Ramses II, four colossal statues.

Population

Egypt's population is estimated to be approx. 79 million in 2010.

Time Zone

The time zone of Egypt is two hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time, and therefore, is approx. 7 hours behind AEST in summer, and 9 hours behind during winter.

Official Language

Arabic is the country's official language, however English is understood in most hotels, restaurants and tourist areas.

Visas

A Visa is required when travelling to Egypt and can be obtained through the Embassy or Consulate in Australia or upon arrival at Cairo Airport at the cost is approx A$45 for a single entry.

Climate

Egypt has general two seasons, a mild winter from November to April and hot summer from May to October. During the summer months of July and August, temperatures can reach over 40 degrees especially in the south, but generally stay around 35 degrees.

Average Monthly Temperatures (Degrees celcius):

Average Temps	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Cairo	Low	9	10	12	15	18	21	22	21	18	14	11
	High	18	20	23	28	32	35	34	32	30	25	19

Tipping

Salaries are low and as such tipping, or baksheesh, is expected for almost every service provided. Recommended tips start from A$1 for porters, $3-5 for escorts, $5 for drivers and average $10 per day for guide or crew during cruises.

Currency

The Egyptian Pound is the official currency; however USD and Euro are widely accepted. Most credit cards are accepted and ATMs are available.

Food

Egyptian cuisine is excellent combining aspects of many different cultures which have inhabited Egypt at one time or another. Some of the national specialties include Foul (beans), stuffed vine leaves, grilled aubergines (eggplant) and kebabs, Fesieekh (salted and dried fish), aish baladi (a pita-like bread), and kofta (a spicy, minced lamb).

Accommodation

The main cities all have hotels ranging from basic to deluxe international standard. Please be aware that the level of quality is different to that offered in Western countries. In general, Egyptian accommodation is of a lower standard, therefore to ensure peace of mind and a comfortable stay, please choose a higher category of accommodation to avoid disappointment.

Electricity

220 volts, 50hz, as in Aust. A 2 pronged cylindrical plug adapter is required.

Getting There

By Air: Major gateways include Cairo, Luxor and Alexandria. Qatar, Emirates & Etihad have flights from Australia daily. Most major airlines have connections via European cities.

By Sea: The main ports are Port Said or Alexandria however currently there are no cruises going there disembarkation is usually not permitted. There are no ferries linking Egypt and Greece or Italy.

Getting Around

Getting around independently, in particular Cairo, is generally difficult. Road: Cairo is a large city with a huge Population. Local transport, although existing, is not recommended, due to insufficient traveller information and poor standards. Similar situations exist in most other major cities. While there are taxis available, the quality is usually low, the cars are not air-conditioned and the prices need to be negotiated prior to entering the vehicle. Car rental is not recommended and while you can walk around the city, it can be difficult. Rail: There are several daily services between Alexandria and Cairo & line continues to Luxor and onto Aswan with an overnight train service offering 2 bedded sleeper compartments. This overnight train offer a simple style of accommodation. Trains are delayed often.
